THE PRAIRIE FARMER.

The Twenty-First volume of this old and reliable agricultural paper commenced on the first day of January, 1860.

It will be the aim of the publishers in the future, to make a paper that shall have a favorite with the Farmer, the Horticulturalist and the Gardener. In each department we shall endeavor to assist in improvement and instruction, and make it a favorite with the young portion of the home circle, by so treating of the various topics of interest to them, as to stand the rank of science of farming still prevail, that the selling may be looked upon as it really is, the most healthful and independent one.

Men of practical contributors will be much esteemed another year; and no expense necessary to secure the agricultural paper of the West will be spared.

The paper will ever be found the working man's friend and advocate.
